

First-rate quality – service second to none

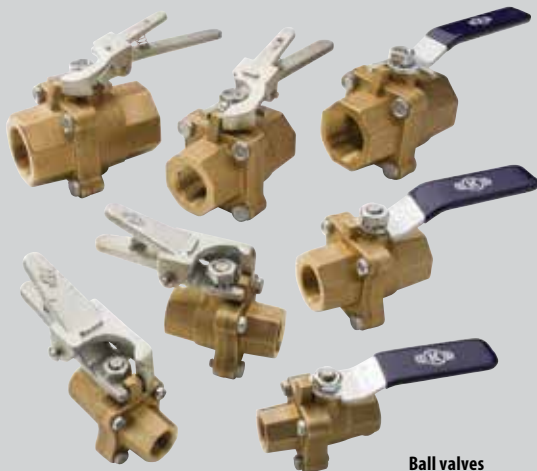

NYAB offers a complete range of AAR-certified rubber replacement parts.

Freight car components

NYAB offers a proven line of freight car and locomotive components and has a 95% on-time delivery record.

With extensive product development and testing facilities, NYAB is committed to developing and supplying superior quality components. We provide technical support to assure that the right component is selected for every application, and maintain a network of field service personnel as part of our customer service commitment.

Ball valves

Dirt collector & cut-out cock

Flanged and standard ball-type angle cock

KM-2 vent valve utilizes a poppet valve design to provide superior and reliable venting.

Three-position retaining valve, the most competitive in the industry, is made from high-strength composite materials.

Two-compartment emergency & auxiliary reservoirs are available in standard and large sizes.

NYAB is a leading supplier of OEM and replacement combined reservoirs, available in standard and large sizes.

Brake cylinder pressure measurement taps meet AAR Standard S-4020.